

Oberlin College Outings Club Membership Form

The Oberlin College Outings Club is a student run organization that exists to facilitate outdoor activities and recreation by renting outdoor gear and offering regular trips to the students, faculty and staff of Oberlin College. Members can rent Outings Club gear and can participate in and lead Outings Club trips all for free. There are two main extended trips, one over fall break and one over spring break. Between these trips, though, occur day and weekend trips to closer locations.
